

CITY AFFAIRS.

Meetings This Day.

Marion Lodge, at 7 P. M.
South Carolina Commandery, at 7 P. M.
Committee I. O. O. F., at 8 P. M.

Auction Sales This Day.

William McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, household furniture, &c.
William S. Hattie, referee, will sell at 11 o'clock, at No. 43 Broad street, notes, accounts, &c., of a bankrupt estate.

WHITEWASHING.—Since the enactment of the United States bankruptcy law, fourteen hundred cases have passed through the Bankruptcy Court in this State, and forty-three hundred in Virginia.

RANGE OF THE THERMOMETER at Joseph Blackman's drug store, No. 39 Broad street, February 23: 8 o'clock, 45; 10, 47; 12, 51; 2, 54; 4, 54; 6, 52; 8, 51.

RAPID TIME.—The steamships Manhattan and Charleston, of the Adger Line, made their late voyages from this port to New York in fifty-three and fifty-one days respectively.

MARRIAGE OF MISS BUCHANAN.—Miss Virginia Buchanan, daughter of the tragedian now performing at the Academy, was married in New York, at noon, yesterday, to Mr. Benton J. Parker, of Chicago.

PERSONAL.—Judge Underwood, of Virginia, is at present residing at the plantation of ex-Governor James Marshall, Jr., at Epping, at a distance from the postoffice, beyond the reach of bills and injunctions.

FOREIGN EXPORTS.—Messrs. R. Mure & Co. yesterday cleared the British bark Andell, for a port in Great Britain, with 250 barrels naval stores, and Mr. W. P. Hall the Spanish brig Marcelina, for Barcelona, with 504 bales upland cotton and 207 bales rosin.

OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to this News Price Current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for tea copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

AMUSEMENTS AHEAD.—The Chapman Sisters, with their fair, fat and funny man, Billy, are coming, and will open at the Academy on Monday, the 28th of March. Their company has been strengthened by several important additions, and the pieces to be presented are, for the most part, entirely new. The gay and beautiful Lydia Thompson, with her famous blondes, is said to be booked to appear in Savannah shortly and will hardly give Charleston the go-by.

A DAVENPORT MYSTERY.—Who put the poll list in the Black Oak precinct ballot-box? The managers of election at that poll are indignant at the charge that they opened the box and put the poll list in it, and deny that the box was opened at all while in their possession. The key to the lock on the box remained in and has never left the Courthouse. It is evident that some unknown political Davenport is at work, and under the investigation which will follow in the contest between the candidates for the senatorship, his tricks will probably be exposed.

COMET STAR FIRE COMPANY.—At the twentieth anniversary meeting of the Comet Star Fire Engine Company, held at the engine house on the 21st of February, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: J. R. Campbell, president; Josiah Fenwick, vice-president; H. R. Hamilton, treasurer; G. W. Keizer, secretary; Allen McLeod, first director; William Robinson, second director; David Smith, third director; Christopher Devine, fourth director; N. Dickerson, W. Singleton, ex-officio; H. Gibbs, hall keeper; Rev. W. B. Brown, chaplain. After the election the members partook of refreshments and a punch, and fun and merriment enlivened the evening until a late hour.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.—Short Seabrook, Hastings Grant, Joe Brown and Sam Jenkins, all colored, and residents of St. Paul's Parish, were brought before Commissioner Parsons yesterday morning, charged with making or armed intrusion into the house of Isaac Miller, of Colleton County, with intent to kill him. A charge of violence was proved, and the only cause shown on examination and alleged by Miller is a material witness against Captain James W. Grace, in one of the numerous cases before the United States Court for violating the election law. The parties were committed to jail for trial at the May term of the United States Court.

BOW AT THE DEPOT.—About half-past 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Henry Simons, a colored driver, became disordered at the South Carolina Railroad Depot, and refusing to desist when told to do so by a policeman, was arrested by the latter. Henry Simons, a brother of the prisoner, was interviewed, and told the policeman that he had no right to arrest Henry. Having his hands without more ado, the policeman arrested him also, and both the prisoners were taken to the Upper Courthouse, where they were released upon depositing $10 as security for their appearance next morning before the Mayor. After a trial they were both sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or to the House of Correction for thirty days. They paid up and left.

ANOTHER HORRID MURDER.—A well-known colored man, whose name we have not been able to learn, and who had been employed for some time past at the phosphate works of Mr. J. B. Sardy, in the old Wappoo mills at the mouth of the cut of the same name, received his wages with the other workmen, on Saturday night, and left the mills shortly after for home. He was found next morning, not far from the station on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, with his throat cut, and so weak from the loss of blood and other injuries as to be unable to speak. Every aid was afforded him; but without success, and he expired during the day. His pockets had all been rifled of everything valuable, and he was doubtless murdered merely for the pittance they contained.

Hotel Arrivals—February 23.

CHARLESTON HOTEL.
G. S. Huxley, Montgomery; A. B. Kerin, Augusta; J. Desautel, Macon; C. K. Wilcox, South Carolina; R. Peters, Jr., Atlanta; J. Ball, Cooper River; C. J. Quinn, New York; G. B. Williams and wife, A. Masuller and wife, Boston; D. D. Doolittle and wife, R. H. Hall, Watertown; A. Lewis, W. E. Wolfe, Connecticut; C. W. Bassett, Norfolk; J. L. Knackel, Rochester; H. LePage, E. Smith, Oppenheim, G. W. Savage and wife, Mrs. Smith and daughter, D. H. Herby and daughter, J. D. Williams and wife, W. E. Bliss, C. D. Walker, J. C. W. Pike, New York; T. Darling and wife, Richmond; Mrs. P. F. Elenberg, Pennsylvania; R. S. Soler, New Jersey; J. G. K. Traut and wife, Syracuse; B. Douglas and wife, Connecticut; S. B. Clarke and wife, Memphis; P. N. Hunt, St. Louis; C. M. Betts, B. Crawley, Philadelphia; J. W. Anderson, Covington; F. D. Turner, Delaware; S. R. Chisman, Virginia; M. Tracey, Mrs. Neagle, Columbia.

PAVILION HOTEL.
G. E. Steadman, South Carolina; C. F. Lesene, Clarendon; W. S. Dusey, George's Station; C. S. Hawthay, Boston; G. W. A. McRae, Florida; John Seton, Brooklyn, N. Y.; H. Hazen, New York; Mrs. Tracy, North Carolina; Mrs. J. Nagle, Columbia.

MILLS HOUSE.
H. H. Egan, New York; P. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Skinner, Ohio; Parsons, Massachusetts; E. Motney, British Army; Edwin Smith, United States Coast Survey; J. H. Young and wife, New York; C. McIntyre, F. E. Wilder, Hilton Head; James Briggs, Miss Briggs, York, Penn.; J. C. McKay, Baltimore.

THE "NARROW ESCAPE OF A TRIAL JUSTICE," reported in our last issue, turns out to have been but a trivial incident; the missile being a buckshot sent through Mr. Schroeder's window from one of the elastic clings so popular now-a-days with the boys. The exaggerated account of the affair was the version of an exorbitant dork.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The attendance last night was pretty fair, when it is considered that this is the "Lenten season." "Macbeth" was rendered very satisfactorily. Mr. Buchanan is unquestionably master of his profession, though we do not altogether like his style. It is unfortunate, also, that his voice is affected by a temporary sore-throat. Miss Gabriella McKean, though rather young and feminine for Lady Macbeth, played the character remarkably well. Her enunciation is faultless, and her action suitable and eminently graceful. The Witches—well, as we have no approved standard of what witches ought to look like, or how they should behave, we shall say no more about them. The audience seemed much pleased, however, and followed the tragedy with interest to the very close. To-night Mr. Buchanan will appear as "Shylock" in the Merchant of Venice, and as Sir Charles Colstream in "Used Up"—certainly a grand bill.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WASHINGTON STEAM FIRE ENGINE COMPANY, held at their hall, on the evening of the 23d instant, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Captain James M. Carson, president; L. Cavanaugh, vice-president; T. E. Hogan, first director; H. R. Wicking, second director; M. O'Mara, third director; H. N. Peggall, fourth director; M. Fitzgerald, secretary; Wm. Chamberlain, deacon; C. H. Schwing, treasurer; Thomas Morris, engineer; J. J. Guenver, axman; M. O'Shaughnessy, hallkeeper. The following stewards were appointed by the president: Thomas Murray, M. O'Shaughnessy, Finance Committee—C. Y. T. Richardson, Wm. Chamberlain, M. O'Mara, T. N. Brown, H. N. Peggall. Committee on letters—T. E. Hogan, C. H. Schwing, M. Fitzgerald. Committee on charity—L. Cavanaugh, B. P. Maule, T. Morris, H. R. Wicking, M. O'Shaughnessy, J. W. Cleaver. Committee on burial ground—A. W. Stevens, C. H. Schwing, W. Bolger.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—The following real estate was sold yesterday morning, at auction: By John E. Bowers: The farm on the northeast corner of the King street and Runney street, 62 1/2 feet in front on King street by 525 feet on Runney street, with a two story house at the corner, for $5575; one-quarter cash, and the balance in nine equal, annual installments. The lot, the last but one on the north side of Wragg square, with residence, 32 feet in front by 101 feet deep, for $220.

The house and lot No. 40, in Mary street, adjoining the store at the corner of King, 46 feet in front on Mary street by 73 feet in depth, for $1700. The house and lot No. 38, next east of the above, 37 feet in front on Mary street by 75 feet in depth, for $1700. The lot on the east side of Washington street, next south of Vernon, 35 feet in front by 49 feet deep, for $510. Terms of the above sales one-third cash, and the balance in one, two and three years.

By J. Fraser Mathewes: The tract of land on Pon Pon Neck, Colleton County, known as Pine Island, containing 200 acres of land, for $940, cash.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Ann Heyward and Thos. Lewis, arrested for disorderly conduct and fighting in Elliott street on Wednesday night, had a hearing before the Mayor. It was shown that Ann was an old offender, and had first struck Lewis, in consideration of which she was sent to the House of Correction for thirty days. Her opponent was discharged.

Georgiana Trusty, Elizabeth Weathers and Mary Ann Polly were tried on the charge of vagrancy and keeping a disorderly house in Mayzack street. The first, as the head of the establishment, was sent to the Workhouse for thirty days, in default of a fine of $10; the second was let off with a fine of $5, which she paid, and the third was discharged.

A sage-struck individual, who after numerous drinks became disordered, and in the excitement of the moment, mistook a policeman for the "melancholy Dana," and was led by him to the Guardhouse. Next morning he "did a tale untold" to the city jailer, who discharged him without a visit to the Governor's office.

HURLING ROCKS WITH TOO GOOD AN AIM.—Yesterday morning, Scipio Gibbs and Frank Fraser, two colored laborers, were working on Marshall's wharf, when a quarrel arose between the two which ended in a fight. They were struggling together, when both fell among a pile of large ballast stones thrown on the wharf from a vessel. Scipio recovered himself first, and seizing a large stone dashed it against the left side of Frank's head. The latter was covered in a few moments with blood, which flowed freely from the ugly gash inflicted by the stone, and was taken off by his friends who had him attended to. Gibbs was arrested and brought before Trial Justice Kinlay, who sentenced him to pay a fine of $10 and costs or to spend thirty days in jail. He paid the fine.

Boston Singleton and James Gray, two colored youths, were engaged Tuesday afternoon in playing tops in Meeting street, near Peter's alley, when they got to fighting. Boston retreated some paces, and taking up a brick thing it at Gray's head. The aim was good and the latter was brought down, bleeding copiously from a deep cut behind the ear. Boston immediately left in a hurry, but was arrested and tried yesterday afternoon before Trial Justice Kinlay. He was found guilty of assault and battery, and sentenced to jail for ten days. His friends have appealed from the sentence.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The District Court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Bryan presiding.

L. K. Teague, of Laurens, bankrupt, was granted his final discharge according to the forms prescribed by law.

A counsel fee of $50 was ordered to be paid B. T. Whitner in the matter of John Cunninghamham. Jno. C. Whitfield, assignee of E. W. Byrum, bankrupt was authorized to call upon all the lien creditors by advertisement to prove their liens on or before the 30th of March, and to sell the property of the bankrupt on the sales-day in April.

On petition of N. S. Harris, assignee of C. R. Franklin, bankrupt, notice was ordered to be given to the lien creditors by mail to establish their liens before the Registrar Jaeger.

Wm. S. Brown, assignee of Keese & McAlilly, was ordered to give notice by publication and mail to the lien creditors to prove their liens before the registrar, the latter being also ordered to report as to the propriety of a sale.

The registrar was ordered to report on the petition of G. W. Shell for the sale of the choses in action of Garrett & Shell.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.—The following appointments are announced: James Bancroft, Jr., Julius A. LePrince, and J. Orrin Lea, to be notaries public at Charleston.

MASONIC.—At a regular meeting of the Enoch Council, No. 1, Royal and Select Masters, held last evening at the Masonic Hall, the following companions were duly elected and installed: R. S. Burns, three illustrious grand officers; Zimmerman Davis, illustrious Hiram of Tyre; Alex. Lindstrom, principal conductor of the works; Douglas Nisbet, treasurer; W. J. Anderson, recorder; J. J. Anderson, captain of the guards; E. L. Jamison, conductor of the council; L. F. Meyer, steward.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP CHARLESTON.—This superior and fast-going steamer of the Adger Line came off the bar yesterday in forty-nine hours from New York, and reached the city during the evening. The Charleston is one of the few steamships now running that is capable of making the crack time of forty-eight hours, which used to be frequently done by the Nashville and Columbia before the war. Her New York papers were ahead of the mail, and her passengers and freight were only two nights at sea. We are under obligations to Mr. F. L. Childs, purser, for the prompt delivery of his report.

PAYING FOR OTHERS.—On Wednesday morning, a colored woman, Hannah Brown by name, purchased a lot of oysters from Raymond Murray for the sum of $2, and told him to call her when the money. The bivalves were duly discussed, but on the return of the vendor, Hannah seized an axe and threatened to "bust him" if he came near her. On his next appearance, she cycled a brick over him with bricksbats, and hitting him on the eye; gave him a bad cut on the head. She was arrested for assault and battery, and, after a hearing before Trial Justice Kinlay, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs or to go to jail for ten days. Being minus the amount named, she did not have much choice in the matter, and took her departure for the jail.

A HARD CASE.—CHARLESTON, February 22, 1871. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

Please give the following statement of facts a place in your columns: Last night, as I was walking home from the Postoffice, having in my hand a stout walking cane, I heard a voice from the opposite side of the street calling to me to stop making that noise with my stick. This was at the corner of Hasel street. The noise referred to was the noise necessarily made in walking with a stick to get the attention of a policeman, as reasonable as if I had been asked to knock off the heels of my boots, I said as much, "so to voice," and the policeman, who was called to me, and who followed after me calling to me, "What's that you say?" When he got quite close to me, I said, "I don't know where you live, but you go back and mind your business; I am going after mine." I continued, then, my way down Meeting street, and, when I got to the corner of Hasel street, I heard a voice behind me, and presently a hand touched my shoulder. Thereupon I turned and said, "Follow that your hand on me or I will kill you!" and at the same moment recognized my policeman. He said, "You'll consider yourself under arrest, sir." I told him that I was quite willing to go to the Guardhouse, and that I was quite willing to have a complaint made against me, but that he must not dare to put his hands on me, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer of the law. I replied that I did not, but that no officer of the law should do that, and that I would go to the Guardhouse, and upon the deposit of five dollars, as a security for my appearance in the morning, I was allowed to go. Before the Mayor the following day, and he said, "I don't know what I had to say? I told him that I was not to answer a charge, but to make a complaint; that I had been unlawfully arrested and detained, and to demand my honor as an officer